

B.A. /B.Com. (passed with intermediate commerce) /B.Sc. (first year admission, it is necessary to pass in the equivalent examination (except SC/ST) with 40,40 and 45 percent marks respectively. Candidates who have passed intermediate examination with Arts and Science 10 subjects, it is mandatory to pass in the equivalent examination with 45% marks for admission. There will be relaxation of 5% in admission for the candidates belonging to the SC and ST, 39.99 or 44.99 respectively 40 or 45 percentage will not be considered.

A student who has passed 10+2 exam from NIOS is eligible for admission to U.G. 1st Year whereas according to the letter no-G.V.V./Examination/2008 dated 03/05/2008 of Registrar Garhwal University, Vrindavan in 2008 are not considered equivalent to intermediate exam , therefore, admission will not be given to such students in any class of this college.

Regular Candidate should attach the certificate of the principal of the former institution and the Private candidate should attach the certificate of a gazetted officer/member of the Loksabha / Vidhan Sabha/Legislative council or the principal /controller of any other school.

The reservation facility for the candidates belonging to SC/ST/OBC will be prescribed by the UK Govt. Order no 1144/section -2-2001-53(i)/2001 which is as follows:-SC/ST/OBC, UK entrants from the competent authority will attach the certificate provided by them so that they can be given the benefit of reservation as per the rules. The benefit of 19% will be given to the SC students, 4% to the ST students, 14% to the OBC students. Apart from this, horizontal reservation will be given in the above categories and in general category seats as follows- Women 30%, Ex-Servicemen 5%, and Physical disabled 4%, Freedom Fighter dependent 2%. The 30% seats will be reserved for girl students in all classes/categories. Reservation will be for the UK state only.

Issued by the competent authority to the candidates belonging to economically weaker upper castes.

Candidates who have passed from other university are required to submit the migration certificate within one month otherwise the admission will be cancelled.