Distinctiveness- 2020-21

At present, the Nobel Pandemic (Covid-19) has rapidly engulfed people all over the world, resulting in the imposition of lockdown, which has increased the anxiety level among the people. Due to the fear of people coming out of their homes, there was a lot of hindrance in the studies of the students. But even in this dreadful environment of covid-19, daily online classes were going on in our college, classes were conducted by all the professors in the college through Google meet, Zoom App, you tube video link and whatsApp group. In order to conduct online classes smoothly, online lectures were given by the professors by making a time table by going to the class at the scheduled time through the Google meet & zoom app. Along with this, notes were also made available through what's app group, videos, PDF and you tube videos. During the practical examination, the viva was also conducted by external and internal examiners through Google Meet and Zoom app. Our college has also been appointed as the nodal college of Pauri District to conduct online classes. The college is paying more attention to the studies of the students so that studies of the students are not interrupted.

Professional and academic development of teachers is always increased in our college. Faculty members participate in short term courses, orientation programmes and refresher courses and other training programmes during the academic year, 2020-21, teachers our college have been designated as panelists, subject Experts and Board of Studies.

Apart from this, efforts are being made by the NSS, NCC and Rovers Rangers Unit of the college to make the society aware and keep the people safe during the covid-19. Students have never been insensitive to the social crisis during the devastation of covid-19. The students were involved in all kinds of activities that were planned throughout the academic year. It can imbibe the spirit of social responsibility and helping the destitute in the minds of the students. NSS, NCC and Rovers-Rangers are the existing in our college for a long time. The services of all these have always been available to the community society. In the time of covid-19, our students did the work of making people aware and helped the Kotdwar police to control the crowd and maintain distance at the state border near Kodia. Masks were distributed by NSS, NCC cadets and other department of the college.
